VALUABLE PLANTATION FOR SALE!

ON THE SECOND THURSDAY IN DECEMBER, that being the 13th day of the month, I will sell to the highest bidder, upon the premises, that desirable lately owned, and resided upon, by Miss Elizabeth Hinton, dec'd.

COTTON PLANTATION,

The tract is situated on Neuse River, six miles East of Raleigh, on the Tarboro' Road, adjoining the lands of David Hinton. It contains ELEVEN HUNDRED AND NINETY-FIVE ACRES, of land,—from THREE TO FOUR HUNDRED of which are cleared. About 100 acres are fine low grounds, not liable to over-flow. This is considered one of the best Cotton Plantations in the County, and the bottom land will always produce enough Corn to sustain it.

THE IMPROVEMENTS

consist of a handsome Dwelling House, containing seven rooms, located on a commanding site. There are three framo houses also on the premises, with two rooms each, and all necessary out-houses, cabins, barns, gin house, carriage house, &c.

As this land will be sold on the liberal credit of only one-third cash, the balance payable in one, two and three years, a rare opportunity is afforded to parties wishing to purchase a first-class farm.

Personal security will be required, and title will be with-held until the last payment is made.

NOTE.—This Land will be divided into three tracts, the House-tract 600 acres, another tract of 350 acres, and another of 245, plots of which may be seen at my office above Creech's Store.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARRISON.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

I have tried Mr. Wm. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them very good. L. M. TUCKER.

Having been appointed agent for the above Company, I respectfully call the attention of the citizens of this section of North Carolina, to the fact that this is a Southern Company with an authorized Capital of $500,000. THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Friday Evening, Nov. 30, 1866.

Mr. Pool and Mr. Holden.

In 1860, we in common with many, entertaining similar views, very warmly supported Hon. John Pool as a candidate for Governor of this State. We then thought him to be a very different man from what his course since his election to the U. S. Senate, obliges us to think now. Had his political inconsistencies and his moral obliquities then, been as apparent as now, and been so fully in accord in all respects with those of his apologist and defender, Mr. Holden, as the public is bound to regard them, we would no sooner have supported him then, than we would now for any office.

For private reasons, in which the public have no concern, we have forborne to dwell upon Mr. Pool's inconsistencies, and have only alluded to them as necessity seemed to force them upon us, as public journalists. But the conduct of his friend Mr. Holden, in the Standard of yesterday, forces upon us the necessity of justifying our own course and the course of those in the Legislature, who voted against Mr. Pool's re-election to the U. S. Senate. Had we remained silent before the election and had the General Assembly elected Mr. Pool, public opinion every where would have justly scouted us as untrue to the Union and to the interest of the nation, and the U. S. Senate, if it admitted him, would have good cause to charge us with infidelity to the Constitution and to the character, which that body has borne and ought ever to bear before the world.

Hear what the Standard says:

"Mr. Pool is the same unflinching Unionist now that he was when elected; hence his defeat." The organ of Gov. Worth, in this city, appealed to its friends, the true Confederates to defeat Mr. Pool because he had authorized Mr. Doolittle to state the fact in the Senate that he (Mr. Pool) had entered the Legislature of this State in 1864 with the view of embarrassing the Confederacy, and obtaining peace on the basis of the Union. The appeal was responded to, and he was defeated, on this ground. He was defeated, and the fact is confessed, solely on the ground of his consistent and devoted Unionism.—We want the President to know this fact. We want the Congress and the Northern people to know it.

* * * * * * * *

In fine, disloyalty has been promoted and honored by our Legislature, and loyalty has been put under foot. A stronger argument for the immediate re-organization of this State could not be urged than the defeat of Mr. Pool on account of his Unionism, and the election of Judge Manly. We trust the Congress will act promptly, and relieve our people of their suspense."

No reader of this journal can truthfully assert, that we have ever said aught to disparage a genuine, consistent Union man, because of his principles. We have never objected to Mr. Pool and Mr. Holden, because of their consistency as Union men. We should rejoice, if either or both could rightfully claim any consistency as such. It is their bare-faced, dough-faced, hypocrisy, that we object to, and this was the sole ground of our effort to defeat Mr. Pool. As to Mr. Pool's known, open conduct during the war, we have raised no objection, but it is his persistent attempt, and the attempts of Mr. Holden since the war, to pass themselves off as Union men par excellence, that we object to.

When the Hon. Mr. Doolittle of the United States Senate last winter, arose in his place in that body, and on the presentation of Mr. Pool's credentials, made the statements that he did, endorsing Mr. P.'s loyalty and unionism during the war, his qualification to take the "test-oath" bating a technicalty, and worse than all, that Mr. Pool had become a member of the North Carolina Legislature, for the purpose of embarrassing the Confederate cause, we were thunderstruck, when we read the statement. Every real friend Mr. Pool had in the State, was mortified and his feelings outraged. They expected to see a disclaimer from Mr. Pool's own hand at once. But to the present time no disclaimer has been heard from him. So far from it, his next best friend, Mr. Holden, on yesterday, acknowledges that Mr. Pool "had authorized Mr. Doolittle to state the fact in the Senate, that he (Mr. Pool) had entered the Legislature of this State in 1864 with the view of embarrasing the Confederacy and obtaining peace on the basis of the Union"!! "O shame! where is thy blush!" So it seems that neither Mr. Holden nor Mr. Pool are ashamed of their hypocrisy, but glory in their shame! And yet Mr. Holden has the audacity to say that Mr. Pool was defeated "solely on the ground of his devoted and consistent Unionism." Yes, defeated just as Mr. Holden was for No Unionism! He, W. W. Holden, who voted for the ordinance of secession "under duress"—wrote and huzzaed for the Confederacy, "under duress,"—supported Vance and the war "under duress," and was compelled "by duress" to play the supple hypocrite during the war! Verily, we have a fine couple of dexterous supple-jacks, who dance to the tune of secession, or the war and the Confederacy, and swear to support it, yet all the time, were the most stubborn, inside Union men in the State!! Since the days of Arnold, have we had such a pair!

Now, be it remembered, when Mr. Pool authorized Mr. Doolittle to make that statement alluded to in the U. S. Senate, Mr. Pool knew, and some of the people knew and remembered, that if Mr. Pool were a loyal Union man after the 20th of May 1861, he had not publicly avowed it. Even Mr. Holden did not know it, for he it was in 1861 who named Mr. Pool as a fit person to be one of the Confederate Presidential Electors for the State at large—that Mr. Pool accepted the post of Elector, and that he, Mr. Pool, cast the vote of North Carolina for Jefferson Davis, President of the Confederate States! Mr. Pool also knew and others knew, that later still, Mr. Pool sought through friends privately, the position of Brigadier General of a Brigade of the Confederate army! Mr. Pool knew and others knew, that later still, Mr. Pool did in the town of Windsor, Bertie county, publicly address the people in favor of their investing their funds in the professed Confederate Cotton loan! Still later, in 1864, Mr. Pool knew and the people knew, when he became a candidate for the Legislature, though a declared friend of peace, he also declared himself to be a friend of the Confederate cause; if he did not go as far about that time as his friend Holden did, and say, that he was "as good a friend of the Confederate cause as any man in the Confederacy," yet he professed to be a friend of the cause. Mr. Pool knew and the people knew, that in becoming a member of the Senate of North Carolina in 1864, he took the solemn oath to support the Constitution of the Confederate States! Mr. Pool knew and so do we, for he professed to us, in speaking of his "peace resolutions," that his object was not to embarrass the Confederate government, which led us at first to give them some countenance. So far, therefore, as Mr. Pool's public and official acts or his private manœuvres for office are concerned, he was not an "unflinching" Union man during the war. The evidence is, that his Unionism "flinched," whenever he could gain advantage by it.

The foregoing facts, repeatedly stated, but never denied by Mr. Pool or Mr. Holden, that we are aware of, show most conclusively, that Mr. Pool was not a consistent loyal Union man during the war—that he could not take the "test oath" but for a technicality, and that if his object in entering the Legislature in 1864 was to embarrass the Confederate cause, that he ignominiously stooped to take the oath to support the Confederate Constitution, thus as many believe fore-swearing himself, to accomplish his purposes!

Now, we say to Mr. Pool, to Mr. Holden, to the President and the Congress, that here is the cause and the only cause, why we opposed Mr. Pool, and why we advised the truly loyal Union men of the Legislature, the men who have stood by the Government, the Constitution and the Union since the war closed, and who can be relied upon to stand by them in the future, to vote against Mr. Pool. It is for these political and personal inconsistencies and his hypocrisies since he was elected U. S. Senator, and more of the same sort, that we opposed Mr. Pool's election. It is for similar, yet more numerous political and personal inconsistencies and hypocrisies, that we oppose Mr. Holden and all such like. But to a real, genuine, consistent Union man before the war, during the war, and since the war, we have no opposition and never raised any.

And yet shameful to say, it is because the Legislature of North Carolina would not disgrace the State or the U. S. Senate by electing such a political hypocrite to that body as Mr. Pool, and because the people of North Carolina would not disgrace themselves by electing that arch-deceiver and malicious mischief-maker, W. W. Holden, Governor of North Carolina, (for after all, there lies the offence of our people,) we say for these causes, which ought to elevate them in the estimation of all honorable people, that W. W. Holden now calls upon the Congress to re-organize the State, put us again under military rule, and fill all the offices of the State with incompetent, and in many cases the worst men that can be found in any community.

We believe, that the U. S. Congress fully understand such men, and that although they may use them for political purposes, it never can confide to them important responsibilities.

Moreover, we tell the Congress that all this cry and clamor about Unionism, and the persecution of Unionists, in this State, are the utterances of malice and meanness, and are utterly false and unfounded. The only test of loyalty that W. W. Holden has, is devotion to him. Every man must support him, follow him, or he is a traitor and disloyal. He, a man who has been false to every party, false to every prominent political friend he has ever had, and who would not hesitate to abandon those he is now supporting, at any moment, to gain his purpose. The Holdenites are not reliable, consistent Union men. They oppose those who have been the most consistent Union men during the war. Hon. Lewis Hanes was one of the most uniform, out spoken, yet ingenuous public Union men in the State. Why do the Holdenites denounce and oppose Mr. Hanes? Why, simply because he abandoned Mr. Holden, when he could sustain him no longer.

Gov. Swain's Letter.—It will be unnecessary to commend the able letter of Gov. Swain in this issue, to the attention of our readers. The views it presents have not been as strongly put before, in any article we have seen upon the subject.

Our Railroads.

Messrs. Editors:—Would it not prove to the interest of the people of North Carolina, for the Legislature to turn over at once to the control of the private stockholders, all the Railroads and other works of internal improvement in which the State is partly interested?—Most of the other States, certainly all of the more prosperous, have long since adopted this policy. It has been found the world over, that a divided responsibility in such matters will not work. Every day's experience in North Carolina only demonstrates more clearly the necessity of a change here. The public are fully prepared for it, and the Legislature should not hesitate to do what would so manifestly promote the interest of the State in securing, in all probability, a speedy and large revenue from these works. Most of them would certainly pay, if properly managed. Private interest and individual enterprise would more probably secure good management. X

What a Fuss one Woman will Make.—One evening this week, as a gay bridal party had assembled around the altar under the flicker of the tall wax candles, and in the presence of the fashionable crowd of friends, who were waiting to have the imposing ceremonies of the Romish Church make them man and wife, they were suddenly interrupted, just as the priest cried out "Does any one forbid these bans?" and stood holding his hands over the kneeling pair. In tones not to be mistaken, a buxum maid yelled out, "I do," and stepping forward, said that the Bridegroom was "her feller," had promised to marry her, and so on. The holy father refused to proceed further, and the pair left in disgust, but repaired to Justice Jencks, who soon consummated their "devoutest wish."—St. Louis Correspondent Boston Herald.

SOUTHERN OPINION.

Letter of Ex-Governor Swain, of North Carolina, to Hon. B. F. Perry on the proposed Constitutional Amendment.

Chapel Hill, N. C., Nov. 19, 1866.

My Dear Sir:—I have received, and read with the attention it deserves, the copy of your letter of the 26th ult., to Charles W. Woodward, Esq.

Your analysis of the Howard Amendment is so clear, and the objections you present to its adoption so forcible, that there is little necessity for further discussion—none, indeed, for those who understand the peculiar condition of the state of affairs at the South. The great obstacle at present to a perpetual and perfect union, is the want of accurate information at the North of the true condition and feelings of the Southern people. I am satisfied that the framers of the Amendment, if they really knew, as statesmen ought to know, those for whom they legislate, would not for a moment urge its adoption, much less insist upon it as a sine qua non.

The third section proposes a double disfranchisement of nine-tenths of the people of North Carolina. I do not overstate the case when I assume, that not one-tenth of those who would be regarded as falling within the range of selection under a system of unrestricted suffrage, are eligible to office under the State or Federal Government. While all who gave aid or comfort to the insurgents, no matter to how great or how small an extent, have the right to vote, it is the right to vote, not for the men of their choice but for persons selected from that tenth of the community, who, as a general rule, without any reference to political opinions, have no paramount claims to consideration, mental or moral. My acquaintance with prominent men throughout the State is, perhaps, as general as that of any other citizen, and yet I do not know of a single instance in any one of the Congressional districts of a person who, can honestly take the test oath, who, in 1860, would have regarded himself, or was considered by others, as one of the number who might reasonably aspire to a seat in the national councils.—Is it any evidence of a want of loyalty to decline such a system of suffrage? It might seem strange if, instead of the privilege of selection from the tenth of our own, we were allowed to vote for citizens of another State to represent us. For one, I could name a score of citizens of other States of the American Union, of either political party, for whom I would much more willingly vote than for any one in this Congressional district, who can give the evidence of loyalty required by the test oath.

Suppose the third section adopted, how many voters would avail themselves of what has hitherto been considered the inestimable right of suffrage! Not more than half the voters participated in the last election for members of the Legislature and Governor. A small proportion and that not always the most discreet, would attend the polls, and the portion of the tenth selected would not always be the most virtuous and intelligent of those eligible to office. One thing is very certain, those most apt to secure a majority of votes under such a system would be the least loyal in profession and devotion to the Union, and most objectionable to those who have been its most earnest advocates in times of the greatest peril.

I will not do the Committee of Fifteen the injustice to suppose, that the majority desired the adoption of a basis of suffrage for the South that would insure the selection of the least loyal of the small proportion of those eligible to office, yet such would be the inevitable result, and therefore, I repeat, I do not believe that the author of the amendment, Judge Howard, would himself desire its adoption, if he was accurately acquainted with our condition.

It is not very difficult to decide the character of our representatives if this rule shall be forced upon us. Let us inquire for a moment who will be excluded. Take your State for an example. From early life to the present time I have had opportunities to know something of your leading men. I knew Mr. Pettigrew personally,—met him in Charleston in February, 1861, corresponded with him during the entire war, and to within two or three weeks of his death, regarded him when living, and venerate him now that he is no more, as one of the ablest and purest men I have known. I cannot say that if he was alive he could not take the test oath, but I can affirm with great confidence that under no circumstances would he do it.—My personal knowledge of you extends through nearly half a century. We were schoolmates and intimate friends in early life, and at all subsequent periods I have been familiar with your history. Without entering into details that might be offensive to your delicacy, I can say with confidence that investigation will establish the fact beyond controversy that from the first avowal of nullification by Mr. Calhoun, in his letter to Gen. Hamilton, until the secession of your State, no member of the Committee, not even excepting Senator Johnson, of Maryland, had ever been placed in circumstances that required or admitted the constant, unflinching, hazardous devotion to the Union, and opposition to nullificatiofi and secession, which have characterized the whole course of your political lite. President Johnson, (in 1829-30, I believe,) resided in Laurens, the adjoining district to Greenville, in your State; and few persons beyond the limits of South Carolina are as familiar as he, or sympathized as deeply as he, in the conflicts which you waged for so many years in behalf of the Union. You cannot take the oath, and what I affirm in relation to those in North Carolina who can, will not apply with less force to South Carolina.—You have no honest and competent men who can submit to a test of loyalty which is, in my estimation, as clearly unconstitutional as inexpedient.

And yet we are told, no doubt honestly on the part of many who say so, that a range of confiscation which has no parallel in the history of civilization since the days of William the Conqueror, is a mild punishment for Confederate treason. The descendants of Shay rebellionists, whiskey insurrectionists, and Hartford conventionists can afford to be merciful, if not magnanimous. We are assured, moreover, with equal honesty and sincerity, that Southern statesmen should consent to their exclusion from office with exultation, as affording an opportunity to open the way to office and emolument to those who, under other circumstances, would never have been thought of by themselves or others in connection with official station. John Quincy Adams, you may remember, entertained or expressed on a memorable occasion very different sentiments. When, with a view to censure Mr. Webster, a Pennsylvania representative offered a resolution, calling upon the President for information as to the manner in which the secret service fund had been expended, Mr. Adams expressed a willingness to vote for it, if the members would avow that his purpose was to impeach Mr. Webster, as Secretary of State. In reply to the suggestion that Mr. Webster was not then in office and not subject to impeachment, Mr. Adams remarked in substance, that he understood the Constitution very differently—that he had now arrived at that time of life that with the exception of the station he then held, he had nothing to expect or desire at the hands of his countrymen, but that he had filled the highest office in their gift, and that for any malfeasance in office he was still amenable to impeachment, and a punishment that he would regard as worse than death—disqualification to hold office. That sentence is proposed to be passed upon you, under an amendment of the Constitution to be adopted, with about as much regard to the spirit of the mode pointed out in that instrument, as would characterize the formality of an impeachment of our friend Gov. Graham for some misdemeanor, yet to be discovered, committed while Secretary of the Navy without a preliminary finding by the House of Representatives, as the great Inquest of the nation I hazzard little in a sying that if you and he had been admitted to your seats in the Senate, a wiser scheme of adjustment would have been adopted, and one much more favorable to the true Union men of the South than the Howard Amendment.

I am, with great respect and esteem, your old friend,

D. L. SWAIN.

[Mr. Durham said: On Wednesday morning I introduced a resolution with a view to get this important subject before the Judiciary Committee. [This bill was reported from the Judiciary Committee as a substitute for a bill with similar title, introduced by Mr. Waugh.]

Mr. McKay, Chairman of the Judiciary Committee, addressed the House in favor of the bill and explaining its scope and purview.

Mr. Crawford moved to amend the substitute by striking out the words "first day of January A. D. 1866," and substituting therefor the words "first day of June 1865," as the time to which the amnesty should extend.

Messrs. Davis, Dargan, Kenan, Long of Cabarrus, Richardson, Waugh and Whitley, urged the adoption of the substitute and its passage without amendment.

Messrs. Blythe, Blair and Freeman opposed the bill.

The amendment offered by Mr. Crawford, of Macon was rejected.

The substitute reported by the committee was adopted, and the question then being on the passage of the bill as amended, its second reading, Mr. Blair, offered the following amendment, which was rejected: viz: as additional sections:

"Sec. 5, Be it further enacted, That no person shall be liable to indictment or subject to civil action for damage, for any offence committed prior to the first day of January 1866, against the person or property of any person in the civil or military service of the State, or of the late Confederate States, or in the service of the Government of the United States.

Sec. 6. Be it further enacted, That any person mentioned in section 5th against whom any action is now pending, civil or criminal, committed prior to the first day of January 1866, shall be entitled to full and complete amnesty and pardon upon the payment of cost of such action.

The question recuring on the passage of the bill its second reading, the yeas and nays were ordered, on motion of Mr. Waugh, and it passed as follows:

On motion of Mr. Waugh the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its third reading.

A message was received from the Senate transmitting a joint resolution proposing that the two Houses adjourn sine die on the 17th of December next.

Mr. Patton moved to lay this message on the table, and on this question the yeas and nays were ordered, on motion of Mr. Hodnett.

The motion prevailed—yeas 64; nays 38.

Mr. Kenan (by leave) introduced a joint resolution proposing sine die adjournment of the Assembly on the 24th of December next.

Rejected.

A message was received from the Governor transmitting Executive correspondence with the Secretary of the Treasury, relative to the National currency, which was read and sent to the Senate.

OF THE SEASON.

FOURTH AND LAST

GRAND OPENING

OF DRY GOODS

THIS FALL.

Having attended the closing Dry Goods auction sales in New York last week, and bought largely many of the Goods at over one hundred per cent. less than similar Goods early in the season, I am now prepared to offer the largest and best assortment of the season at fully 50 to 100 per cent. less than at any previous time this season.

I would also state the late purchases are far superior in quality, style and fabric to anything offered in this market this season.

I will also reduce the price of the present stock to correspond with the heavy decline in the price of all kinds of Dry Goods. You will now have an opportunity from the best and largest stock in Virginia at prices that cannot but please.

I will enumerate a few of the prices, that you may form some idea of what you can do.

You can buy good plain Colored Silks for $1, worth early in the season $1.50.

CORRECTION.—In our report of the House vote on yesterday in the election of U. S. Senator, Mr. Galloway, of Pitt, is reported as having voted for Mr. Pool on the first and fourth ballots. Mr. Galloway authorizes us to state that this is a mistake, and that he voted for Hon. W. N. H. Smith on every ballot on Wednesday last.

THE BASE BALL MATCH.—Large numbers of our citizens and others, witnessed, on yesterday, the exciting and interesting match-game between the Pioneer Base Ball Club of this city and the University Club of Chapel Hill, on the grounds of Mr. Boylan, usually occupied by the "Pioneers." No friend has furnished us an account of the game except the result, and we are, therefore, compelled to make a brief notice of it.

Both parties met on the ground about 2 o'clock. The following parties represented the two Clubs:

Pioneer Club.—A. P. C. Bryan, W. E. Anderson, Andrew Syme, S. G. Ryan, Jas. McKimmon, R. H. Bradley, S. B. White, B. C. Manly and E. F. Page.

University Club.—W. D. Horner, W. S. Battle, Jr., G. G. Latta, A. Phillips, G. M. Rose, J. H. Smith, P. H. Winston, A. Smith and J. G. Young.

Chas. M. Busbee of the "Tar Heel" Club acted as Umpire.

F. H. Busbee of the "University Club," and Wm. Primrose of the "Pioneer Club," were the scorers. Mr. J. C. Webb, who was appointed among the first nine of the "University Club," gave way to Mr. A. Smith.

The "University Club" got the first inning and the playing commenced with spirit. The "University Club" labored under disadvantages. The ground was the regular play ground of the "Pioneers," and the former success of the "Pioneers," together with their known superior playing qualities, secured the sympathy and confidence of the crowd, which, of course, had a tendency to detract from the spirit of the "University." But nothing daunted, they resolved upon success, which their superior "batting" and successful rounds soon indicated to the crowd. The game was hotly contested, yet the "University" handsomely kept ahead. Subsequently, the "luck" of the Pioneers turned and towards the close gained rapidly on the "University," but the latter having so much the start, came out the victors, beating the Pioneers 24 rounds in the nine innings.

The following result has been furnished us:

UNIVERSITY CLUB.

The interest continued to the close, and the Pioneers bore their defeat gracefully. The "University" boys were highly elated. The "Tar Heels" challenged the "University" for a game to-day, which was very properly declined. The Pioneers and University then repaired to the Yarborough House where a fine dinner was prepared for the company at the expense of the Pioneers, by the excellent host, Mr. Riddick.—The best of feeling prevailed. Maj. Gales, President of the "Tar Heel" Club, was called upon to deliver to the victorious Club, the "Champion Ball," which we learn he did in a beautiful and appropriate speech.

From the Richmond Enquirer.

Diffusion of the Negro Population.

John Randolph said he was never satisfied with a speech that he had made, unless followed by some fluttering to show that it had taken effect. Governor Worth's late message has been honored by this proof of its point and power.

The instinct of the civet has taught it, when hotly pursued, to bite off its perfume bag and leave it to the hunter, and thus to terminate the chase. Governor Worth profits by the hint; hence the following observations which we extract from his late message, relative to our colored population:

[Here follows the extract from the Governor's message relating to the African race.]

The African population being the source of discord, Gov. Worth wisely proposes to diffuse it, and thus remove it as an occasion of contention. Distribute them so that all may have some, and a special case can no longer be made against the South. It is difficult how any patriot, or philanthropist, or abolitionist, or any one who desires the repose of the country and is willing to accord fair play and equal rights to the negro, can fail to support this policy. It is impossible to understand how they can oppose it. And yet its enunciation by Gov. Worth has been greeted by a storm of ridicule and rage. The New York Times exhausts the resources of sarcasm, and the New York Tribune of invective, in denouncing it. Neither of them advance one solid or plausible argument against it. They show by their irritation that they cannot oppose it by reason. The Tribune insults the Governor for daring to propose any thing,—the Times insults him for proposing such a thing. They both give evidence that the Governor has proposed the right thing. He has found the starling's nest,—it is shown by the cries and fluttering that would entice him away. The New York Tribune, whose editor, in a letter to the North Carolina freedmen, advises them to stay where they are, responds to Gov. Worth in part as follows:

"No doubt, the refusal of such a proposition as this would be quoted as a proof of the hostility of the North to the Freedmen, and its unwillingness to receive them as citizens. Governor Worth knows better than to suppose that the United States is to become an Emigration Bureau for the removal of four millions of people. He knows very well that it is not its business to transport laborers from one State to another, and equally well that its legislation for the Freedmen has been intended for the protection of its citizens on the soil where they stand and in the homes they have chosen. If the freedmen of North Carolina choose to come North, that is their business, not Gov. Worth's nor that of Congress, and it is only the duty of the United States Government to see that wherever they go or stay they shall not be the victims of unjust local law. That is all, and that is enough for an impartial Government, except in the special aid it has extended, through the Freedmen's Bureau, to the poor people whose necessities the Southern States are unable to relieve. But discussion of this subject is unnecessary."

The Tribune is evidently more afraid of having a point made on its party, than solicitous for the welfare of the negro. It knows very well that the United States, through its Freedmen's Department, has become an Emigration Bureau for the removal of freedmen. It knows that many thousands of them have been transported from one State to another, when judged expedient. It knows that at this time Gen. Howard is offering free transportation to many thousands in the District, if they remove North. Nor can it be any greater exercise of authority, or less sensible, or more expensive, to send them where they can earn their food, than to feed them where they are. If carrying heathens to Christianity has proved more efficacious than carrying Christianity to the heathen—why not pursue a like policy with the negroes?

When some plausible pretexts are adduced in opposition to Gov. Worth's proposition, for one we pledge them a candid consideration. But by the present showing, it is evident that even Greeley while abusing the South as ferocious and cruel and unjust to the negro, is afraid to attempt to secure him an equal kindliness among the people of the North. He abuses us but is afraid to trust his own people to do as well. Hence he says to the negroes—stay where you are! Either for the reason we have given, or because he wants to keep the negro and the South as political capital, though both perish in consequence. For one reason or the other, or for both combined, he grows furious at Gov. Worth's proposition, when, whether as abolitionist or patriot or honest man, he ought eagerly to have embraced it.

Our Friday Morning Dispatches.

Washington Matters.

WASHINGTON Nov. 29.

It is stated that General Garfield, member of Congress from Ohio, proposes on the first day of the next session, to give notice of a bill providing for the assembly of the fortieth Congress on the fifth day of March next, the day following the adjournment of the present Congress. Such a move however will be opposed by a great number of Radical members. The Republican of this morning states, that there is not only no authority whatever for the crossing of our military forces over the Rio Grande, but a positive order against such a movement. And in connection therewith says, that if it should prove true, General Sedgwick will have violated orders, and will be forthwith relieved from duty, and ordered under arrest.

To-day was generally observed as a holiday. Business was suspended and the Departments all closed.

Mexican Affairs.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.

Although no formal official communication has been made to the Government, there is no doubt that information has been verbally furnished of Napoleon's intention to remove the French troops from Mexico at the earliest practicable time. The arrangements for that purpose being now in progress. The reason why the first detachment of one third of the troops were not embarked in November, according to the Emperor's own programme, is that the other two thirds might have been seriously damaged by the Liberals, who were persistently pressing them. To obviate such a result, it was deemed more prudent to remove them all at once. There is now no doubt but that this will be done. Much speculation has been indulged in as to the actual business of Lieutenant General Sherman in accompanying Minister Campbell to Mexico. But the truth is he was designated, as our adviser to that gentlemen, both as regards diplomatic affairs in Mexico, and as to military movements, on the frontier, should any new emergency arise to require a new disposition of the troops. But since the reception of the Emperor's intentions, with regard to the removal of his army, it is not supposed that such a necessity will occur.

The last news received by the Government respecting Maximillian, is that he was at Orizavia, the French officials refusing to leave Mexico unless he formally resigned his crown.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhœa Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

LINWOOD, AND RICH JERSEY LANDS, FOR SALE!

LOSSES of property and my sons, with a desire to close business and pay my debts, has induced me to convey, by Deed in Trust, all my property to Alfred Hargrave, of Lexington, North Carolina, which will be sold by him, and conveyances made, on Tuesday, the 11th. of December, 1866, at Linwood first, and Lexington next, from day to day until all is sold, consisting of the following property:

Linwood, Consisting of 1,649 Acres.

This celebrated tract will be divided into a number of ones, suiting large or smaller purchasers, including a valuable Flouring Mill, a comfortable roomy Cottage, Servant's Houses, Barns, Shops, with wells and springs of excellent water. The natural fertility of these land is unsurpassed even in the famed "Jersey Settlement," in the heart of which they are located. They lie on both sides of the North Carolina Railroad, 7 miles from Lexington, and 11 from Salisbury, N. C. These lands are bounded by the Yadkin River, and run north and east covering Swearing Creek, and north and south Pott's Creek; have been ditched, drained and under-drained at much expense; have nearly five hundred acres of woodland, in heavy, original forest growth, equally distributed on different parts of the estate, and sufficient for farming purposes, not an acre but what is well situated for cultivation, or the raising of grass. There are now on them fine mowing and grazing lots and fields, with woodland pastures. In all these particulars constituting one of the most desirable and healthy estates in the South. It is enough to say for it, that it is the best and most valuable estate in the famed "Jersey Settlement," and has been under a state of improvement for forty years. Cotton, Wheat and Corn have been the staple products, but there are now large fields in a condition to produce the best yield and quality of shipping Tobacco, drained and cleared of stumps and stones, easily to be broken and ridged into ground for tobacco hills.

Also, a tract of two hundred Acres of Woodland, in original forest growth, of Oak, Hickory and Yellow Pine, 2½ miles from Lexington, and 2½ miles from a Saw Mill on Abbott's Creek, and known as the Garner Place.

Also, 81 Acres—the TRENTHAM PLACE—constituting a part and adjoining the town of Lexington. Highly improved land.

Also, my interest in the Houses and Lots on which I live, in all nine acres, on which is a Fine Mansion House and improvements.

Also, the Celebrated Blooded Stallion, MEDLEY, drives well in harness. A match of superior blooded Carriage Horses, kind in harness. A superior Blooded Gelding, 4 years old. Two Blooded Brood Mares, one with a Colt. One Buggy Horse. Twenty first-class Mules, and two Jennies. Also a fine Blooded Filly, going on four years old.

Also, 87 head best bred North Devon Cattle, bred from the best imported Bulls and Premium Cows, of which there are about 40 Milch Cows, 3 fine Bulls, with young Bull Calves and Heifers, &c., and a fine yoke of North Devon Oxen.

Also, 50 head best bred South Down Sheep, including a superior lot of Rams, all of the best importations. A Stock of Hogs. The whole of the crop of Corn, Cotton, Oats, Hay, Fodder, Straw, Shucks, &c.

Also, 4 horse Wagons, 2 horse Wagons, Ox Wagons and Carts, and a number of Iron Cart Axles. A Family Carriage, a Barouche, 2 Buggies and an Ambulance.

Also, a very large stock of the best Agricultural Implements, viz: 3 horse, 2 horse and 1 horse Plows, Harrows, iron and wooden framed Cultivators, Iron Clod-Crushers and Sectional Rollers, one Wheat Drill with Guano attachment, one superior Threshing Machine, Wheat Fans, two Reaping and one Mowing Machine, Farm Rollers, Spades, Shovels, Axes, Mattocks, Picks, Crow-Bars, Blacksmith and Wood Shop Tools, with Bellows, &c., and Carpenter's Tools.

Also, 20 shares of stock in the North Carolina Rail Road Company.

Also, all the Household and Kitchen Furniture, one new Hydraulic Ram with glass air-chamber, and a large lot of Lead and proof Tin Pipe, with every variety of property named in the Trust.

I invite all my friends to attend the sale, and supply themselves with material to begin and prosecute an improved system of husbandry, from the point I have left off.

W. B. HOLT.

At the time and place above named, the sale will take place, viz: Tuesday, the 11th of December, 1866, and continue from day to day until all is sold.

For the Lands, 6 and 12 months credit will be given, bond and approved security required, and title made when paid for. For the personal property, 6 months credit for sums over ten dollars, under ten dollars, cash. Interest discounted for cash over sums of ten dollars.
